Baghdad Declaration

Saturday, May 17, 2025

At the gracious invitation of His Excellency the President of the Republic of Iraq, Dr. Abdul Latif Jamal Rashid, and His Excellency the Prime Minister, Eng. Mohammed Shia Al Sudani, Their Majesties, Excellencies, and Highnesses—the leaders of the Arab States—convened the 34th Ordinary Session of the Council of the League of Arab States at the Summit Level—the Baghdad Summit—on May 17, 2025, in Baghdad, the City of Peace in the Republic of Iraq, reaffirming the shared destiny and the fraternal, historical bonds that unite all Arab States,

Believing in the principles of the Charter of the League of Arab States, which unite us all under the principle of a shared destiny, driven by a sincere desire to achieve stability and prosperity for our Arab nation, and in response to the challenges confronting the Arab nation given the current regional and international transformations,

Believing in the importance of joint Arab action to achieve the security and stability of Arab States and foster cooperation and integration across all fields, and emphasizing the necessity of adopting a unified strategic vision to confront the challenges facing our region,

Reaffirming the ties of brotherhood and shared destiny among our States in light of the substantial economic and human potential of the nation, committing to the principles of good neighborhood, non-interference in internal affairs, and the peaceful resolution of disputes to achieve stability in our region, and enhancing cooperation across all domains to forge a secure and prosperous future that fulfills our objectives and aspirations,

And based on a firm commitment to the values of tolerance and mutual respect among nations and peoples, driven by a firm conviction in the importance of dialogue and understanding between religions, cultures, and civilizations as a means of fostering human rapprochement, and asserting support for international peace and security, and for strengthening cooperation in service of the advancement and prosperity of humanity,

First: We, the leaders of the Arab States, convening within the framework of the Council of the League of Arab States at the Summit Level,

1. Express gratitude and appreciation for the efforts exerted by the Kingdom of Bahrain during its presidency of the 33rd Arab Summit, and for its endeavors to unify efforts, support joint Arab action, and protect the interests of the Arab States; and further express gratitude and appreciation for the efforts of the Arab Republic of Egypt in hosting the Emergency Arab Summit in Cairo on March 4, 2025 to address the grave and consequential developments in the Gaza Strip and the occupied Arab territories in Palestine;

- The Palestinian cause

2. Affirm the centrality of the Palestinian cause as the cause of the Arab nation and the cornerstone of stability in the region, and unequivocal support for the inalienable rights of the Palestinian people, including their right to freedom, self-determination, the establishment of an independent and fully sovereign State of Palestine, the right of return, and compensation for Palestinian refugees and expatriates; and condemn all illegal measures and practices by the Israeli aggression, as the occupying Power, which target the brotherly Palestinian people and deprive them of their right to freedom, life, and human dignity as guaranteed by divine law and international legal instruments;

3. Demand the immediate cessation of the Israeli aggression against Gaza and the halting of all hostile actions that exacerbate the suffering of innocent civilians; and urge the international community, in particular the influential States, to assume their moral and legal responsibilities by taking a forceful stance to halt the bloodshed and ensure the unimpeded delivery of urgent humanitarian aid to all areas in need in Gaza;

4. Call upon all States to provide political, financial, and legal support for the Joint Arab-Islamic Plan adopted at the Arab Summit held on March 4, 2025 in Cairo, and by the Foreign Ministers of the Organization of Islamic Cooperation on March 7, 2025 in Jeddah, concerning the recovery and reconstruction of the Gaza Strip within the framework of a political process that leads to the realization of the independence of the State of Palestine, guarantees the natural right of the Palestinian people to their land, prevents their displacement, and enables them to exercise all their legitimate rights; urge all States and international and regional financing institutions to expedite the provision of necessary funding to implement the plan; and welcome the proposals and initiatives submitted by Arab States to establish a reconstruction fund for Gaza, foremost among them the call made by Iraqi Prime Minister Engineer Mohammed Shia

Unofficial Translation

Al Sudani at the Emergency Arab Summit in Cairo in 2023 and the Arab-Islamic Summit in Saudi Arabia in 2024 to establish an Arab-Islamic fund for the reconstruction of Gaza and Lebanon;

5. Emphasize the importance of joint coordination to exert pressure to open all crossings to allow the entry of humanitarian aid into all Palestinian territories, to enable United Nations agencies, particularly the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East (UNRWA) to operate within the Palestinian territories, and to provide international support that enables these agencies to fulfill their mandates and resume their missions;

6. Welcome the establishment of an open-membership working group to follow up on the establishment of a fund, in cooperation with the United Nations, to care for approximately 40,000 Gazan orphans, offer aid, and provide prosthetic limbs to thousands of injured persons, particularly child amputees; commend, in this context, the “Certificate of Hope” initiative launched by the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan to support amputees in the Gaza Strip; and encourage all States and organizations to initiate similar efforts to support relief efforts in Gaza’s health sector;

7. Reiterate our unwavering rejection of all forms of expulsion or displacement of the Palestinian people from their land, under any pretext, circumstance, or justification, considering such actions a grave violation of the principles of international law and international humanitarian law, a crime against humanity, and an act of ethnic cleansing; and condemn the policies of starvation and scorched-earth aimed at forcing the Palestinian people out of their land;

framework of the political and geographical unity of the Palestinian territory occupied in 1967; reaffirm that the democratic path and recourse to the ballot box remain the only means to respect the will of the people in choosing their representatives through general, presidential and legislative, elections to be held within one year in all Palestinian territory, in Gaza, the West Bank, and East Jerusalem; and call for the creation of the appropriate conditions to ensure their conduct;

10. Welcome the United Nations General Assembly resolution at its meeting on May 10, 2024 regarding the request of the State of Palestine for full membership in the United Nations, supported by 143 Member States; call upon the United Nations Security Council to reconsider its resolution taken in this regard at its session on April 18, 2024; request the Council to act with fairness and support the rights of the Palestinian people to life, freedom, and human dignity, and to work to implement its relevant resolutions concerning the question of Palestine and the occupied Arab territories; and value the efforts of the People's Democratic Republic of Algeria, in its capacity as the current non-permanent Arab member of the Security Council, in defending Arab causes, particularly the Palestinian cause, halting the Israeli aggression against the Gaza Strip, securing a ceasefire, and advocating for the State of Palestine to obtain full membership in the United Nations;

11. Support the continuous Qatari-Egyptian joint mediation efforts aimed at achieving a ceasefire and ending the Israeli aggression against the Palestinian people in the occupied State of Palestine;

12. Demand the international community to implement the United Nations Security Council resolutions adopted since the onset of the aggression on the Gaza Strip in October 2023,

including Resolution 2720; and call upon the international community, in this context, to fulfill its legal obligations immediately and take resolute measures to end the Israeli occupation and aggression in all occupied Arab territories, including the Syrian Golan and southern Lebanon, and to implement all relevant Security Council resolutions;

13. Emphasize the sanctity of the occupied city of Jerusalem and its status in the three monotheistic religions; condemn all acts of Israeli aggression aimed at Judaizing the city, altering its Arab Islamic and Christian identity, and undermining the historical and legal status quo of its holy sites; stress the necessity of providing protection for the holy sites in Bethlehem and preserving their cultural and religious identity; reaffirm support for the Hashemite Custodianship of the Islamic and Christian holy sites in Jerusalem, exercised by His Majesty King Abdullah II ibn Al-Hussein, King of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan, and its role in preserving the Arab, Islamic, and Christian character of the city; and assert that Al-Aqsa Mosque/Al-Haram Al-Sharif, encompassing its full area of 144 dunams, is a place of worship exclusively for Muslims; and assert support for the role of the Al-Quds Committee and the Bayt Mal Al-Quds Agency, chaired by His Majesty King Mohammed VI of the Kingdom of Morocco;

14. Call for concerted international efforts, including by States and international organizations, to oblige the Israeli aggression, the occupying Power, to end its illegal occupation of Palestinian territory along the lines of June 4, 1967, eliminate all its repercussions, promptly provide compensation for the damages incurred, implement all provisions of the Advisory Opinion issued by the International Court of Justice on July 17, 2024, and implement the United Nations General Assembly Resolution A/RES/ES-10/24 of September 18, 2024, which adopted the outcomes of the Advisory Opinion of the International Court of Justice;

15. Commend the honorable positions of the Republic of South Africa in its support for the Palestinian cause and people; and express full support, appreciation, and endorsement of the legal action brought by South Africa against the Israeli aggression, the occupying Power, before the International Court of Justice on charges of committing genocide against Palestinians in the Gaza Strip;

16. Welcome the continuous efforts of the Global Alliance for the Implementation of the Two-State Solution, launched in New York in September 2024 by the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, in its capacity as Chair of the Arab-Islamic Committee established by the Joint Summit on Gaza, together with the Kingdom of Norway and the European Union, and the hosting of the Alliance's meetings by the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, the Arab Republic of Egypt, and the Kingdom of Morocco, in cooperation with the Kingdom of the Netherlands, the European Union, and the Kingdom of Norway;

17. Support the persistent diplomatic efforts of the Ministerial Committee established by the Joint Arab-Islamic Summit on Gaza urging an immediate ceasefire, allowing the entry of humanitarian aid to all areas of the Gaza Strip, and initiating practical steps to implement the two-state solution;

18. Value the positions of the European countries—Spain, Norway, and Ireland—that recognized the State of Palestine in May 2024; and urge other States to follow suit and to recognize that history will record these positions and that humanitarian values and legal legislation will ultimately uphold the Palestinian people's inherent right to self-determination and sovereignty over their land;

- The situation in the Arab world

assassination of the President of the Republic of Somalia, His Excellency Hassan Sheikh Mohamud, in March 2025;

25. Assert the sovereignty of the United Arab Emirates over its three islands: Greater Tunb, Lesser Tunb, and Abu Musa; and call upon the Islamic Republic of Iran to respond positively to the initiative of the United Arab Emirates to resolve this issue peacefully, either through direct negotiations or by resorting to the International Court of Justice, in accordance with the principles of international law and the Charter of the United Nations, to build confidence and promote security and stability in the Arabian Gulf region;

- Joint Arab action to confront challenges

26. Emphasize the imperative of establishing a nuclear-weapon-free zone and a zone free of all weapons of mass destruction in the Middle East, in accordance with the agreed-upon terms of reference and the United Nations General Assembly Decision 73/546—the conference on establishing a nuclear-weapon-free zone and a zone free of all weapons of mass destruction in the Middle East; and call on all concerned parties to accede to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons, which is the cornerstone of the international system for preventing the spread of these weapons;

27. Emphasize that water security is an essential pillar of Arab national security; underscore, in this regard, the importance of supporting the efforts of the Republic of Iraq, the Arab Republic of Egypt, the Republic of Sudan, and the Syrian Arab Republic to guarantee their legitimate water rights; and express solidarity with these States in their pursuit of just and equitable solutions through dialogue and constructive cooperation that ensures shared benefits and prevents any potential harm to their water rights;

Unofficial Translation

28. Stress the importance of joint efforts to strengthen collective Arab capacities to address current development challenges, foremost among them food security, health security, energy security, and climate change, and of the imperative to develop cooperation mechanisms to institutionalize Arab action in these fields;

- Combating terrorism

29. Reaffirm our unwavering position in condemning all forms and patterns of terrorism and its associated ideologies, as well as the terrorist acts and activities perpetrated by terrorist gangs, particularly Daesh, Al-Qaeda, and affiliated groups and individuals, that pose a grave threat to the Arab region as a whole, in addition to organized crime, drug trafficking, human trafficking, and money laundering; and stress that the persistence of terrorism in all its forms and its associated threats constitute a grave threat to societal peace and undermine regional security and stability, which requires an effective and comprehensive collective response, both military and civilian, to combat terrorism and dry its sources within a framework of enhanced joint Arab cooperation through coordinating Arab, regional, and international efforts and fortifying the capacities of counter-terrorism institutions in Arab States;

30. Welcome the efforts of the government of the brotherly Republic of Iraq in combating terrorism and terrorist threats; highly appreciate the sacrifices made by the Iraqi people and army and its military and security forces; laud the Iraqi government's decision to establish the "National Center for Combating Terrorism and Preventing Violent Extremism Leading to Terrorism" as a constructive step in developing national mechanisms; commend similar centers in Arab States; and call for adopting similar measures to establish these specialized centers, promoting collective and bilateral cooperation in this regard, exchange of expertise, joint
